

EMORY EMS

EMT/AEMT COURSE APPLICATION 2018-2019

Dear EMT/AEMT Course Applicant,

Emory Emergency Medical Services (EEMS) is a professional EMS agency that provides vital medical services, education, and outreach to Emory University and the surrounding community. EEMS was founded in 1992 as the first collegiate EMS agency in the state of Georgia and is an award-winning and nationally recognized collegiate EMS organization.

In the EMT/AEMT Course, students learn life-saving patient care skills through both classroom and clinical experience. The course is approximately 1 year in length; it begins in August and follows the undergraduate academic calendar. In recent years, classes have been held two nights per week (Monday and Wednesday, 6-10pm) with two 8-hour Saturdays per month on Emory's main campus. In addition to classroom hours, students complete dozens of clinical hours with top EMS agencies and hospitals in the metropolitan Atlanta area.

The purpose of our EMT/AEMT course is to staff Emory EMS with highly trained, licensed Advanced EMTs. While this course requires considerable extracurricular work, it can be one of the most rewarding activities during your time at Emory. There is a separate tuition for the course, but it is a fraction of what other local programs cost.

Upon successful course completion, graduates must apply for an EMS provider license in the state of Georgia and volunteer for at least one year as an active member of Emory EMS. Entry into this course is a minimum two year commitment.

For more information, reference eems.emory.edu.

Thank you for your time,

The Emory EMS Command Staff
