If You Witness a Crime

- Do not attempt to apprehend the criminal or interfere with the crime, except in the case of self-protection.

- Do not block a perpetrator’s avenue of escape. Instead, get a good description of the perpetrator, note their direction of travel, and obtain vehicle information.

- Do not follow the perpetrator. Let the perpetrator leave the scene. If followed, the perpetrator may panic and cause you harm.

- Call Emory Police at 911 from any campus phone or 404.727.6111 as soon as possible and report the crime. If requested, stay on the line with the 911 operator if you are in a safe location, and provide:
  - Exact location/campus of the incident.
  - Nature of the incident.
  - Description of person(s) involved.
  - Description of property involved
